Special Price List No. 7

Philadelphia Mint - 1792

April 1969

Coin collecting has grown by leaps and bounds the last few years. Numerous articles in leading newspapers and periodicals have done much to spur this interest. It is only natural that more people should turn to coin collecting as a hobby with today's greater personal affluence and more leisure hours.

The current monetary crisis in Great Britain points up another reason to collect rare coins. Lack of confidence in the Pound Sterling has created a rush to turn cash into something "hard". Rare coins fill the bill quite nicely.

In this country, interest in collecting by type continues at a high level. One reason for this popularity is the fact that with a given sum of money, one can amass a more representative collection. Aside from financial considerations, type collecting affords greater flexibility. You can collect the first year of type, last year of type, 18th, 19th, 20th century type coins etc. The list is endless. There have even been collections of the rarest coin of the type!

1968 Albania & Haiti Proofs

These beautiful pure silver proofs promise high investment potential

Only the number of Albania and Haiti sets ordered will be struck, so no additional proofs will be available after the dies are destroyed. Some first-minted sets are ready now for immediate delivery.

The coins are struck in beautifully flawless detail with a unique mirror and frosted finish. Each one looks like a piece of rare jewelry. This alone is reason enough to invest in the proofs.

Even more, the coins are 1000/1000 pure silver and many experts predict the value of this precious metal may triple within the next 18 months.

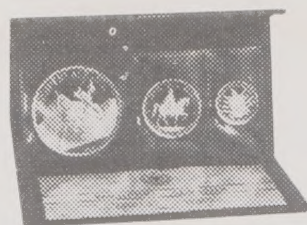

Add to this the growing popularity of foreign proof sets ... and both the Albania and Haiti proofs seem to have unusually high investment potential.

Collectors who've missed out on other proof offers at original prices tell us things like:

"I kept putting off my order of 1966 Panama proofs when I could get them for $15.00. Now I see they're selling for three times that much. I missed the chance to really make a profit."

"If only I'd realized the value of those 1968 U. S. proofs! A $5.00 investment in one set a year ago is worth about $16.00 today."

There's a good chance, of course, that many will say this about the '68 Albania and Haiti sets ... but you won't be one of them if you order now.

Albania sets are $43.50 each; Haiti proofs are $53.00. These prices include an attractive presentation case.

Just fill out the form below and mail it to us. We'll send your sets within a few weeks. But do it today ... before it's too late.
